Two down, two to go

IT WAS TWO DOWN and two to go Friday night when the Glades Central Raiders whipped the St. Thomas Aquinas Raiders for the Section IV championship, setting up their semi-final game this week against Titusville Nastronaut on their quest for the State Class AAA championship. One of the reasons the Raiders shut down St. Thomas are shown above, where David James and another, unidentified, Raider hidden behind St. Thomas quarterback Mike Stanley, harrassed Stanley all night, sacking him five times and intercepting five of his passes. Another is shown at the right, where Jessie Hester is off and running on a 52-yard punt return good for six points.

Not that we wish to add to the unemployment rate but the stated purpose of Title I is to help educationally disadvantaged children catch up with their peers.

By educationally disadvantaged we're not talking about children with learning disabilities . . . that falls under Exceptional Education and the folks at Gove are already doing a great job in that area.

We're talking about kids who, because of their background and environment, need a leg up to get them started.

The West Area Title I program is doing just that, going so far, according to first grade teacher Barbara Kaye, that where there were enough first graders five years ago to fill four Title I centers, there are enough today to only fill one

That means the kids are catching up. That the schools in the Glades are getting children more prepared to start school with the other kids in their age group.

That means that Title I works and, hopefully, there'll be a time in the not-too-distant future when kids in the Glades won't have to take a back seat to anyone when it comes to getting an education, here or when they go on to college.

And that means, if it's carried far enough, that we'll all be better off because they'll be able to earn a living and society won't have to support them.

Schools get $759,000

"Academically talented" school courses not now available at local cit children in the county's West Area will be getting a boost this year when part of a 755,000 grant when part of a 755,000 grant begins providing them with courses and help they've never had available before.

The program is contained in Component B of the West Area ESAA (federal Emergency School Aid Act) and West Area Superintendent of Education H. W. "Dick" unities for them in the form of jobs the Ferryman said it is designed to help academically talented to find opportunities for them in the form of jobs in local industry or scholarships at universities.

"If a student can function in the

Two Christmas views

By REV. J. E. MCGAHEY mmunity United Meth. Church

This past Sunday was the first Sunday of Advent or of the Christmas Season. There are two ways to look at Christmas - one from a completely secular point of view, the other from a spiritual point of view. I expect most of us do some of both.

Church

Dinner

Planned

The women of St. Paul Church of God in Christ are planning their annual fellowship dinner for Dec. 8 at 8 p.m. at the Holiday Inn.

The guest speaker will be Bishop O.T. Jones, Jr., of Philadelphia. Jones pastors the Holy Temple Church of God in Christ in Philadelphia and serves as Jurisdic-tional Bishop of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The First United Methodist Church of Pahokee will hold an old-fashioned revival from Sunday, December 9 through Friday even-ing, December 14, 7:30 p.m. night-ly.

The evangelist is Dr. William Coker, Professor of Bible at As-to decide what Christmas is going to mean to us. It is not the store keeper's job to put Jesus Christ into our Christmas. As a matter of fact, the Church can only provide opportunity for us as individuals or families to do this. And this the various churches do. They do it in many ways. First, there is their emphasis on the meaning of Christmas in Sunday School and Worship. Then, most churches have some special

Speaker

To be

But we as individuals and families have to take advantage of these opportunities. If we choose to become so involved in the commercial and secular part of Christmas celebration that we have little or no time for the REAL celebration of Christmas, then that is our fault.

Christmas, then that is our fault.

There is still time for each of us to set our priorities for this Christmas. We can still decide what the first priority of the Christmas Season is going to be, and then stick to it.

Christmas ought to make a big difference in our lives. However, for many people the only difference in their pocket-books they have less there. If it is going to make a spiritual difference in our lives, we will have to choose for that to happen.

Have a merry Christmas — one

Basically, our job is to put women in better touch with their bodies, so they can recognize subtle signs of early labor: cramping, low backache, pelvic pressure, or mucous vaginal discharge.

We also teach them how to "self-

Music Enhances Christmas Season

What would Christmas be without music? It's hard to imagine celebrating the holiday season without the strains of "Silent Night" or "Joy to the World" expressing the wonder and hope we feel at Christ's virth.

Fortunately, we have music to enhance the holidays, and it's been present since that very first Christmas, when the heavenly host performed their extraordinary "Christmas Concert" for some awestruck shepherds in the hills near Bethlehem.

Since that night, there a traditional melody, both young and old contain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a traditional melody, a such as "Deck the Halls", carolis written, cantain a tradition and traditional melody.

composed, and popular songs written about Christmas.

Everyone has a holiday preference and chances are, you'll be hearing your own particular musical favorite sometime this season, whether it's piped into your local department store or performed by the church choir.

Some Christmas carols have famous composers such as Adolphe Adam (O Holy Night) and Felix Mendelssohn (Hark! The Herald Angels Sing). Still others are attributed to a traditional melody, such as "Deck the Halls", which was inspired by an ols Welsh tune, and "Coventry Carol", based on a traditional English melody.

The anonymous and the famous, the privileged and the poor—all manner of composers have endeavored to share their joy in the holiday season with a musical offering of some kind.

Christmas music can be reverent and uplitiing, or merry and rollicking...either way, it reflects the magic of this time of the year, in a very special way that both young and old can appreciate.

ONE SOLITARY LIFE

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village, where He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty. Then, for three years, He was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a home. He didn't go to college. He never visited a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where He was born. He did none of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but Himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While He was dying, His executioners gambled for His garments, the only property He had on earth. When He was dead, He was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today He is the central figure of the human race. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that one solitary life.

Once again, the most joyous of holiday seasons is upon us, bringing a spiritual renewal and strengthening of family bonds. Among all these holiday traditions are found many of long ago and enchanting history.

ditions are found many of long ago and enchanting history.

The hanging of mistletoe is a practice derived from the British custom of the "Kissing Ball." This special ornament was made from evergreen branches and was hung in a passageway. A berry was removed each time a kiss was exchanged. Onco all berries were removed, kissing ceased.

Decorative wreaths for doors and windows are traditions thought to have been inspired by the great Della Robbia family of Florence. Italy. This popular wreath pattern of fruit and foliage was originally made to resemble small, circular garlands, surrounding tiny figurines. Gradually, the round greens grew in size until ready to stand as art in themselves.

The practice of hanging Christmas stockings began in Southern Europe. Legend states that an old man was in despair because he had no money for his daughter's dowries. Saint Nicholas, hearing of the man's plight, dropped a bag of gold down the oldster's chimney. The gift traveled quickly and landed in a stocking, hung upon the mantle to dry.

The next year, friends and neighbors hung out their prettiest stockings in anticipation of the coming of the generous Saint. Today, the practice of hanging these picturesque socks remains one of the happiest of Christmas traditions.

Great Games on 'Kid Power'

In this age of gadgets and gimmicks, it's nice to know that you can still find some simple, basic games to give the children on your Christmas list, games that need no power but kid-power to activate the fun.

Basic games are ideal for teaching kids fundamental skills, cost only a few dollars and never need batteries. But best of all, they're fun!

Some games have been around long enough to become classics. Such a game is Cootic, everybody's favorite bug for more than 30 years.

Cootie is still teaching chil-dren fundamentals like colors, numbers and taking turns, as each player races to be the first to complete his or her Cootic by adding legs, eyes and so on.

Gift-givers can choose the standard Cootie game, or treat a child to Deluxe Cootie or Giant Cootie; all are as sure to please now as the original Cootie did three decades ago.

ford in Westphalia, Germany. He operated his shop in Baltimore until 1870 when he moved to New York to open the "Schwarz Toy Bazaar" at 765

Other basic games are varia-tions on traditional favorités. For instance, Stadium Checkers, from Schaper, combines the strategy of checkers with the excitement of marbles.

Players must move their mar-bles down the stadium by rotat-ing concentric rings—but, at the same time, try not to move the opponent's marbles.

Bingo takes on a new dimension in Shake Bingo, a game played with dice. Players match the numbers on the dice with the dice configurations on the plas-tic bingo board; the first to cover six numbers in a row is the

Another variation, on two classics, is Tiddle Tac Toe. This game combines the coordina-tion skills of tiddlywinks with the strategy of tie tac toe, and the only predictable outcome is a fun time for all.

Don't Spill the Beans or The Last Straw are ideal. All are lively action games that require no reading skills, and are great tools for pre-schoolers to learn dexterity and Steering through the maze from flower to hive is the object of Tickle Bee, a Schaper classic for over 17 years.

Using skill, concentration, and the magnetic "tickler" wand, players try to guide the bee without getting "stung." The nice part for parents is that Tickle Rep is call Tickle Bee is self-contained, so there are no parts to get lost.

When you begin your search through the toy store this Christ-mas for a game that will enter-tain as well as develop chil-dren's skills, you needn't be dren's skills, you needn't be dazzled by sophisticated gad-dazzled by sophisticated gad-getry—and the high prices that go with it.

Good, basic games such as these can provide hours of con-structive play from a limitless energy source—children!

Traditions For the Tree

Gorham, a year-round tradi-tion in sterling, china, crystal and gifts, has just introduced a myriad of exciting new "tradi-tions for the tree"—twenty-six delightful Christmas tree ornaments that will gleam brightly through many Christmas seasons

Of special interest are new free-standing, three-dimensional sterling ornaments which illustrate the Christmas Eve dreams

They include a Treasure Chest, Steam Engine, Carousel and Rocking Horse. (Certain to be admired on the tree, they will also be charming decorative ac-cessories on the mantle during the holidays, or perhaps superb centerpiece decorations for holiday festivities.)

Other equally charming ster-ling ornaments in the collection of sterling ornaments (by special arrangement with American Heritage Society) include St. Ni-cholas (Ht. 4") laden down with a Christmas tree and toys; a Locomotive (L. 41/4")—perhaps a remembrance of the first train set under the tree; Children Around The Tree (Ht. 33/4") which captures the joy and excitement of young people at Christmas; a Reindeer (L. 3¼") in a graceful leap, the smooth surface accentuating its beauty; a Dove (L. 4¼") which carries an olive branch as it soars in flight; an Angel With Trumpet (Ht.  $4\frac{1}{2}$ "), inspired by an 1840 weathervane, heralding the Christmas season; and Santa and Sled (L. 4") which looks just as we hoped he would on arrival!

In addition, the collection includes Choirboys (Ht. 3") de-picted as we tend to see them, on their best behavior; a "Snowman" (Ht. 31/4")-almost the favorite snow sculpture of all; an amusing Elf (Ht. 4"); Santa Claus (Ht. 3%") complete with his package of gifts; and an Angel (Ht. 41/4") replete with halo and heavenly expression. Each design in the collection has been chosen to depict the es-sence of the Christmas spirit. Many will become family favor-ites and will also be treasured as collectibles in years ahead.

Two-dimensional pierced ornaments in the collection are de-signed to catch and reflect the lights, and will gleam as they twirl. They are a Tree, a Lantern, a Turtle Dove and a Ball.

Gorham's 1979 sterling Snowflake is the 10th annual edition of the spectacular design which has become a favorite of ornament collectors.

This year, for the first time, it is pierced, to catch and reflect the tree lights. Year-stamped on the back, and with room for a message, it can also be worn as a pendant, (Diam. 31/4").

Gorham's 1979 Christmas Spoon is the 9th spoon in the annual edition. It is marked "Christmas 1979" on the back, and tipped with pine cones and green leaves handle (L. 3¼").

Homemade Gifts Are Easy to Make

Looking for some new and creative gift ideas for the peo-ple on your Christmas list this year? Why not make the gifts

All you need are some household items, inexpensive notions and a box or bottle of dye.

Here are some easy-to-do, under-the-tree treats for this holiday season.

• Take dad's old white terry

bathrobe and brighten it with color. Just submerge the robe in a tub of dye following package instructions, and ... voila, a new twist to an old friend.

· Chamois cloth, found in your local auto supply store, can be transformed into crafty jew-elry items, carry-all pouches and scarves.

To make a heart necklace

for someone special on your list just follow the package instruc-tions and dye two cloths using Rit Dye in two desired colors.

Cut two hearts and one skin-ny strip from the dyed chamois; puncture the hearts and string the ends of the strip through the holes; knot the ends and you have a fashionable accent for any outfit.

• Even paper can be dyed your favorite color! Turn ordinary dimestore tablets into handcrafted stationery-or dye some shelf paper to use as giftwrap.

For solid coverage, dip each sheet separately into dye con-centrate, or for water swirls, dip the entire pad in at once, flip ping the pages one by one and letting the dye "seep freely" in unique designs.

• Is there someone on your list who is always disorganized? With some clothespins and a bottle of dye, you can create colorful clips for keeping lists, messages or files together and in one place.

These are just a few of the many things you can create in-expensively and personally for your friends and relatives.

If you'd like some more easyto-do ideas and instructions, write for "The Wonderful Art of Color Dyeing" to RIT/N, P.O. Box 307, Coventry, CT 06238.

Avoid the Christmas shop-ping rush. Do-it-yourself this year and have more time to enjoy the holidays.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Today's Christmas Tree, And How It Came to Be!

Why do we have Christmas trees! the custom can be traced to the early pagan days of Northern Europe. Natives used holly, evergreen and mistletoe to decorate their homes at midwinter. The greens were thought to encourage the co-habitation of friendly spirits during the winter solstice. European Christians enjoyed the color and fragrance of the greens and continued the practice long after the pagan significance was forgotten.

Pageant plays as we know them today developed from the miracle plays of the Middle Ages. These programs depicted religious stories and moral themes. Because they were performed in churches, scenery was kept to a minimum. The entire garden of Eden was represented by a fir tree with apples tied upon it. Soon, it became known as the Paradise Tree. Ironically, this

- O Christmas tree, O Christmas Tree
  How beautiful and bright.
- O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree, How beautiful and bright.

The sight of thee at Christmas tide Spreads hope & gladness far & wide.

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree, How beautiful and bright.

present-day symbol of the Nativity originated as a representation of the Fall of Man. In 1450, when secular plays were banned, the symbolic tree was brought into the home as an object lesson. The evergreen symbolized morality, and the apples, sin. Later, cookies and sweets were hung as a reminder of the "sweetness" of the Savior's Redemption. Decorative treats were expanded to include candy canes and popcorn chains. Later, the moralistic character of the tree gradually faded as glittering ornaments and figures took the place of apples and wafers.

Legend attributes the first lighted tree to Martin Luther's 16th century attempt to recreate the beautiful, snowy evergreens of Germany. Candles were originally used on such trees and were later replaced by electric facsimiles. Through the years, lighting designs have been revised to today's present varieties.

The tradition of decorating Christmas trees in the United States began in 1776 during the American Revolution, when Hessian soldiers brought the custom from their native Germany. A short while later, in 1804, a Christmas tree was mentioned as part of a holiday celebration at Fort Dearborn, Illinois. With little objection, the traditional tree became an integral part of a 19th century Christmas and the practice of decorating holiday trees has continued ever since. Today, more than two-thirds of American homes have a beautiful tree as part of their holiday decorations.
